WORLD WIND ENERGY CONFERENCE WWEC2021

AND EXHIBITION

(a virtual conclave of RE crusaders)

The 19th edition of the World Wind Energy Conference (WWEC), a flagship event of World Wind Energy Association (WWEA) being held annually since 2002 except in 2020 due to the worldwide pandemic, is going to be held from 24-26 November 2021. The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI) and WWEA jointly host the international conference in new virtual format at TERI, New Delhi as a hub. This will be delightful reality experience virtually. The conference, calling the global order of addressing the climate change as theme 'Powering the World with Wind and Sun' is supported by international agencies such as ISES, ISA, IHA, and REN-21. Keeping the importance of the theme and the current needs, international development funds, institutions, the industry across as well as private sector involved with Renewable Energy will take part.

The conference driven by the idea of international collaborations in Renewable Energies and Climate Change, will bring and discuss the innovations from all over the world to address pressing needs of today. It shall be a confluence of the ideas of diverse stakeholders, including senior government officials, CEOs of Industry, Heads of FIs and Banks, to explore synergies in harnessing Renewable Energy for the good of humanity. WWEC2021 will focus on the opportunities offered by innovation and modernization of technologies and methods to meet the growing energy demands of the developing countries in an affordable and reliable manner, based on domestic renewable resources and without exacerbating climate change risks. A congregation of minds from different countries discuss policy and regulatory issues, procurement and supply chain strategies, innovations and future paths to accelerate the renewable centric unique opportunities for the economic growth and prosperity.
